4 BURNT ALIVE AS CAR CATCHES FIRE IN VIJAYAWADA

Vijayawada: Four persons, including a child, were burnt alive as an electric car caught fire after hitting a road divider in Andhra Pradesh's Vijayawada on Monday. Another person was critically injured in the horrific accident that occurred on the Vijayawada West Bypass Road. Police and fire-fighting personnel rushed to the spot and doused the fire. The vehicle was completely gutted in the fire. The deceased were identified as Kommareddy Ramdev, 39, his mother Kommareddy Aruna, T. Vijay and a child. They were all residents of Nunna and Namburu. Tragedy struck them while they were returning from a function in Namburu. The car caught fire after hitting the road divider, and within seconds, flames engulfed the entire vehicle, trapping four of the occupants. The fifth person sustained grievous injuries and was shifted to a hospital, where his condition is stated to be critical. Police registered a case and took up the investigation to ascertain the cause of the crash. Minister for Human Resource Development and IT, Nara Lokesh, termed the death of four individuals in a road accident on the Vijayawada West Bypass as deeply shocking. He offered his condolences to the families of the deceased. The minister said he has instructed the authorities to take necessary measures to ensure better medical treatment for the injured.

New Delhi (TSIT)

Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi and 10 other INDIA bloc leaders have moved the Supreme Court, challenging the Election Commission of India's (ECI) Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls, alleging large-scale voter deletions and irregularities in the exercise.

The writ petition, filed on Monday, names the ECI and Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Gyanesh Kumar among the respondents. According to the case status reflected on the apex court's website, the petition was filed on October 12 under diary number 64196/2026 and is currently pending.

It lists Rahul Gandhi, Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge, Trinamool Congress leader Saugata Roy, Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav, Rashtriya Janata Dal leader Tejashwi Prasad Yadav, Shiv Sena (UBT) leader Sanjay Raut, CPI(M) leader M.A. Baby, CPI leader D. Raja, Jharkhand Mukti Morcha leader Mahua Majhi, NCP (SP) leader Supriya Sule and Indian Union Muslim League leader E.T. Mohammed Basheer as petitioners.

The respondents include the Election Commission of India, CEC Gyanesh Kumar, Election Commissioner Sukhbir Singh Sandhu and Election Commissioner Vivek Joshi. The development comes amid an escalating confrontation between the Opposition and the poll body over the SIR exercise, with INDIA bloc leaders alleging that the revision process threatens electoral fairness and could result in the exclusion of eligible voters from electoral rolls.

Earlier on Monday, Gandhi said Chief Justice of India (CJI) Surya Kant had advised Opposition leaders to approach the Supreme Court through a formal petition after they sought an appointment to raise their concerns over the SIR exercise. Addressing a press conference at the Congress headquarters in New Delhi, Gandhi said he and Kharge had written to the CJI expressing concern over electoral fairness and "attack on democracy".

Revanth slams PM Modi, Amit Shah over 'vote chori'

Hyderabad TSIT BUREAU:

Telangana Chief Minister A.Revanth Reddy on Monday accused Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Union Home Minister Amit Shah and Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar of facilitating "vote chori" under the guise of the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls. He called upon Congress leaders and INDIA alliance partners to intensify their campaign to protect citizens' voting rights.

Addressing a meeting at Telangana Bhavan in New Delhi as part of the "Vote Bachao... Desh Bachao" campaign, Revanth Reddy described the struggle as another freedom movement. He said the campaign was being led by Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge, Leader of the Opposition Rahul Gandhi and INDIA alliance leaders.

Drawing a parallel with the "Simon Go Back" agitation during the freedom struggle, the Chief Minister urged supporters to raise the slogans "Gyanesh Go Back" and "SIR Go Back" against what he described as attempts to disenfranchise eligible voters.

Revanth Reddy alleged that minorities, Dalits, tribals, backward classes, the poor and young voters were being targeted through the revision exercise. He demanded transparency in changes to electoral rolls and safeguards to ensure that eligible citizens retained their right to vote.Recalling the sacrifices of Lala Lajpat Rai, Bhagat Singh, Mahatma Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru, he said the Constitution drafted under Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's leadership had placed political power in the hands of ordinary citizens through voting rights. Protecting those rights, he asserted, was a responsibility shared by every citizen.

The Chief Minister said earlier electoral revision exercises had focused on including eligible people whose names were missing from the rolls. He alleged that the present exercise was being used to remove existing voters for political advantage.He also accused the Centre of using investigative agencies against political opponents and attempting to undermine the independence of the Election Commission. Any erosion of the commission's credibility would weaken public confidence in democracy, he warned.

Questioning Modi and Shah's silence over demands for Gyanesh Kumar's removal, Revanth Reddy criticised restrictions on demonstrations and heavy police deployment in Delhi. He demanded an explanation for the suppression of protests against the Election Commission. The Chief Minister claimed that 13 crore voters' names had been deleted and alleged that further deletions were being contemplated. Questioning how voter numbers could decline while the population increased, he sought an explanation from the Election Commission and urged constitutional authorities to address the concerns.

No Negligence in Public Grievance Redressal: CM Naidu

CM reviews RTGS functioning, directs officials to ensure accountability and speedy resolution of complaints

Amaravati, TSIT.

Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu on Monday directed officials to ensure that no public grievance was neglected and that all complaints were addressed promptly and effectively. During a review meeting held at the Secretariat through the Real-Time Governance Society, the Chief Minister assessed the performance of various government departments and reviewed the delivery of public services at the field level.

Observing that the Public Grievance Redressal System had helped resolve several public issues, Naidu instructed Chief Secretary Sai Prasad to convene a meeting with district collectors to further improve the system's efficiency. He stressed that nodal officers in all 175 Assembly constituencies should ensure proper follow-up on complaints and fix accountability among officials and employees responsible for their resolution.

CJP gives Delhi Police 24-hour ultimatum

TO GRANT PERMISSION FOR JANTAR MANTAR PROTEST

New Delhi (TSIT):

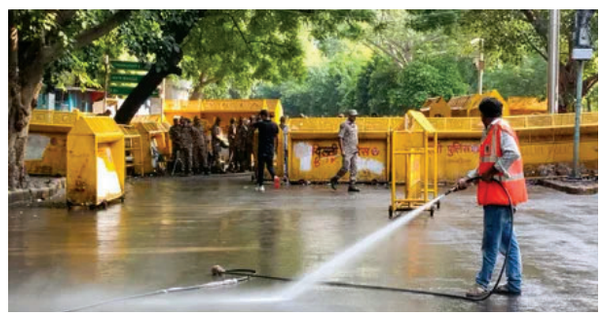

The Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) on Monday said it would give the Delhi Police 24 hours to respond to its request for permission to hold a protest at Jantar Mantar, as the party continued its agitation against Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Gyanesh Kumar.

CJP Co-Convenor Saurav Das said peaceful protest was a constitutional right and asserted that people would continue to exercise it. He said the party had left it to the Delhi Police to suggest a date and time for the proposed demonstration, while making it clear that the request should not be kept pending indefinitely.

"Peaceful protest is a right, a constitutional right, and people are already exercising it. People will continue to hold peaceful protests. The police always complain that we should approach them 10 days in advance. This time, we have left the choice to them and asked them to suggest a date and time for our protest. We are leaving everything to them, but we are also saying that they should not keep the matter pending indefinitely. We will give them a 24-hour ultimatum. Let us see what happens after we speak to them," Das said. Meanwhile, CJP Co-Convenor Ashutosh Ranka, upon arriving at the Parliament Street Police Station, said the party would approach the Delhi Police to seek a date for holding the demonstration at Jantar Mantar. "We are going to ask Delhi Police for a date to hold a protest at Jantar Mantar. We hope the police will give us a date. If they do not, we will make another call within 24 hours..." Ranka said.

New Delhi, Oct 12 : Jantar Mantar has been de-notified as the "designated" protesting site, Delhi Police said on Monday. New guidelines for protests have been issued under Delhi Police Standing Order No. L&O/48/2026.

According to the Delhi Police, the decision was taken based on the recommendations of a Home Ministry committee.

"Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, had constituted a Committee to examine alternative proper venues for citizens' right for organising protest/demonstrations in place of the existing 'designated site'," read the official statement. "Based on the Committee's recommendations, Jantar Mantar as a protest venue has been de-notified," it further read.

Three new locations in Delhi -- Ramlila Ground, Burari Ground and East Delhi's CBD Ground -- have been designated for protests. "Detailed and revised SOP for organising protest/demonstrations at these three venues will be issued separately.

Narayanpet District Earns National Recognition for Excellence in PM Dhan-Dhaanya Krishi Yojana

Narayanpet, October 12 (TSIT)
Narayanpet district has earned national-level recognition for its outstanding performance in implementing the Pradhan Mantri Dhan-Dhaanya Krishi Yojana. District Collector Priyanka received the prestigious award at a programme organised under the aegis of the Ministry of Agriculture in New Delhi on Monday.

The recognition highlights the district administration's efforts towards agricultural development, farmer welfare and the effective implementation of government schemes aimed at strengthening the agricultural sector.Speaking on the occasion, Collector Priyanka appreciated the dedication and commitment of officials in achieving the objectives of the Pradhan Mantri Dhan-Dhaanya Krishi Yojana. She emphasised the importance of ensuring that the benefits of government schemes reach eligible farmers and that agriculture-related development initiatives are implemented effectively at the grassroots level.The Collector directed officials of the concerned departments to work in close coordination and implement agricultural development programmes in a systematic and planned manner.She also congratulated all district-level officials and their teams who contributed to securing the national recognition. Acknowledging their collective efforts, she stated that teamwork, dedication and a sense of responsibility had played a crucial role in this achievement. Collector Priyanka expressed confidence that the award would serve as a further motivation for the district administration to improve public service delivery and achieve greater milestones in agricultural development and public welfare. She added that the national recognition had placed greater responsibility on the district administration to ensure the effective implementation of government development and welfare programmes in the coming days.The achievement marks an important milestone for Narayanpet district and reflects the collective efforts of the district administration towards promoting agricultural progress and improving the welfare of farmers.

New Delhi, Oct 12 : Chief Justice of India (CJI) Surya Kant has declined a request by the Congress-led INDIA bloc of Opposition parties for a meeting, advising them to approach the court through a petition instead, ahead of their planned march to the Supreme Court on Monday.

According to sources, the CJI conveyed that the issues the Opposition leaders intend to raise are already sub judice and are being heard by the Supreme Court.

The CJI is learnt to have said that the court cannot meet a delegation representing a political party at the administrative level in this manner. He reportedly emphasised that the judiciary's role is to hear petitions and deliver judgments.He also reiterated that the doors of the Supreme Court, as the country's highest judicial body, are "open 24 hours a day for all" and that it remains "committed to protecting the fundamental rights of every citizen".

Despite the refusal, the INDIA bloc's proposed march is likely to proceed on Monday. The demonstration is part of a series of protests by Opposition parties, which have demanded the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar over alleged irregularities in the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls, among other issues.

Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi has maintained that the planned march is "not of a political party, but of all Indians". The Congress leader is seeking to broaden the campaign's reach and build pressure on both the Chief Election Commissioner and the Narendra Modi-led BJP government at the Centre.

AP CM Virtually Launches ‘Venkatadri’ App for Pilgrims

TIRUMALA : The Honourable Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh, Sri N. Chandrababu Naidu, today virtually launched Venkatadri, a digital navigation and pilgrim-assistance mobile application developed by TTD.

Designed to help devotees navigate Tirumala and locate essential facilities, the app features an AI-powered voice assistant that provides guidance around the clock. Pilgrims can use voice commands to find facilities such as drinking-water points and darshan entry points. The app also supports offline navigation, enabling its use in areas with weak or no internet connectivity.

Venkatadri maps more than 350 locations across 25 facility categories. These include drinking-water points, hospitals and medical centres, parking areas, public toilets, bus stops, darshan entry points, luggage centres,

Names of defaulting borrower(s), particulars of the pledged gold collateral, and the address of the concerned lending branch is displayed at the respective lending branch and at the above auction centre, and may also be obtained from IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000 or www.iifl.com.

Right to Repay Before Auction: The borrower(s) / legal heir(s) may repay the entire outstanding dues, including up-to-date interest and applicable charges as disclosed in the loan agreement and Key Facts Statement (KFS), and close or regularise the loan account at any time up to the date of auction, whereupon the account shall stand withdrawn from the auction.

Proportionate publication charges shall be recoverable from accounts closed or regularised on or after the date of this publication.

Deceased Borrowers: Where a borrower is deceased, this notice and the auction terms shall apply to the legal heir(s) of the borrower.

Reserve Price: The auction shall be subject to a reserve price of not less than 90% (85%, for loan accounts where auctions fail twice) of the current value of the gold collateral, determined in accordance with the RBI Directions.

Basis of Sale: The auction shall be conducted on "AS IS WHERE IS", "AS IS WHAT IS" and "WHATEVER THERE IS" basis. Intending bidders are advised to inspect the gold collateral particulars displayed and satisfy themselves prior to bidding.

Postponement / Withdrawal: IIFL may postpone the auction or withdraw any loan account therefrom for reasons to be recorded, including repayment or regularisation of the account, orders of any court or authority, or operational exigencies.

Any change in the date or venue shall be displayed at the auction centre and the concerned lending branch.

Where the auction cannot be held or completed on the date stated herein, IIFL, at its discretion, with due notice may conduct or continue the auction on a subsequent date either in the same district or adjoining district or conduct an online auction.

No Conflict of Interest: IIFL and its related parties shall not participate in the auction, in compliance with the RBI Directions.

Auction Proceeds: Full details of the value fetched at auction and dues adjusted shall be provided to the borrower(s) / legal heir(s). Surplus, if any, shall be refunded within seven working days of receipt of the full auction proceeds (basis availability of the banking details of the borrower); borrowers are accordingly requested to update their latest bank account details with the concerned lending branch. Shortfall, if any, shall be recoverable in terms of the loan agreement.

For detailed information and terms and conditions, please contact the concerned lending branch of IIFL Finance Limited (address as displayed with the account list) or IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000.

Data Centre Threatens Vizag Environment: Raghuveera Reddy

Visakhapatnam, TSIT: Congress Working Committee member and former APCC president N. Raghuveera Reddy on Monday alleged that the proposed Adani-Google data centre poses environmental risks to Visakhapatnam due to high water consumption and the discharge of contaminated wastewater.

Addressing a press conference, he questioned the allocation of land near Kambalakonda Wildlife Sanctuary and the Mudasarlova reservoir without adequate public consultation. He also accused the coalition government of misleading people over BC reservations in local body elections, recalling the Congress government's earlier provision of 34 per cent reservation for BCs.

Raghuveera Reddy alleged that around 13 crore votes had been illegally deleted during the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) process nationwide. He demanded the resignation of the Chief Election Commissioner, repeal of the 2023 law on the appointment of election commissioners, and a comprehensive review of SIR-related changes and deletions. APCC vice-president Vegi Venkatesh and other Congress leaders attended the press conference.

Names of defaulting borrower(s), particulars of the pledged gold collateral, and the address of the concerned lending branch is displayed at the respective lending branch and at the above auction centre, and may also be obtained from IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000 or www.iifl.com.

Right to Repay Before Auction: The borrower(s) / legal heir(s) may repay the entire outstanding dues, including up-to-date interest and applicable charges as disclosed in the loan agreement and Key Facts Statement (KFS), and close or regularise the loan account at any time up to the date of auction, whereupon the account shall stand withdrawn from the auction.

Proportionate publication charges shall be recoverable from accounts closed or regularised on or after the date of this publication.

Deceased Borrowers: Where a borrower is deceased, this notice and the auction terms shall apply to the legal heir(s) of the borrower.

Reserve Price: The auction shall be subject to a reserve price of not less than 90% (85%, for loan accounts where auctions fail twice) of the current value of the gold collateral, determined in accordance with the RBI Directions.

Basis of Sale: The auction shall be conducted on "AS IS WHERE IS", "AS IS WHAT IS" and "WHATEVER THERE IS" basis. Intending bidders are advised to inspect the gold collateral particulars displayed and satisfy themselves prior to bidding.

Postponement / Withdrawal: IIFL may postpone the auction or withdraw any loan account therefrom for reasons to be recorded, including repayment or regularisation of the account, orders of any court or authority, or operational exigencies.

Any change in the date or venue shall be displayed at the auction centre and the concerned lending branch.

Where the auction cannot be held or completed on the date stated herein, IIFL, at its discretion, with due notice may conduct or continue the auction on a subsequent date either in the same district or adjoining district or conduct an online auction.

No Conflict of Interest: IIFL and its related parties shall not participate in the auction, in compliance with the RBI Directions.

Auction Proceeds: Full details of the value fetched at auction and dues adjusted shall be provided to the borrower(s) / legal heir(s). Surplus, if any, shall be refunded within seven working days of receipt of the full auction proceeds (basis availability of the banking details of the borrower); borrowers are accordingly requested to update their latest bank account details with the concerned lending branch. Shortfall, if any, shall be recoverable in terms of the loan agreement.

For detailed information and terms and conditions, please contact the concerned lending branch of IIFL Finance Limited (address as displayed with the account list) or IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000.

Names of defaulting borrower(s), particulars of the pledged gold collateral, and the address of the concerned lending branch is displayed at the respective lending branch and at the above auction centre, and may also be obtained from IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000 or www.iifl.com.

Right to Repay Before Auction: The borrower(s) / legal heir(s) may repay the entire outstanding dues, including up-to-date interest and applicable charges as disclosed in the loan agreement and Key Facts Statement (KFS), and close or regularise the loan account at any time up to the date of auction, whereupon the account shall stand withdrawn from the auction.

Proportionate publication charges shall be recoverable from accounts closed or regularised on or after the date of this publication.

Deceased Borrowers: Where a borrower is deceased, this notice and the auction terms shall apply to the legal heir(s) of the borrower.

Reserve Price: The auction shall be subject to a reserve price of not less than 90% (85%, for loan accounts where auctions fail twice) of the current value of the gold collateral, determined in accordance with the RBI Directions.

Basis of Sale: The auction shall be conducted on "AS IS WHERE IS", "AS IS WHAT IS" and "WHATEVER THERE IS" basis. Intending bidders are advised to inspect the gold collateral particulars displayed and satisfy themselves prior to bidding.

Postponement / Withdrawal: IIFL may postpone the auction or withdraw any loan account therefrom for reasons to be recorded, including repayment or regularisation of the account, orders of any court or authority, or operational exigencies.

Any change in the date or venue shall be displayed at the auction centre and the concerned lending branch.

Where the auction cannot be held or completed on the date stated herein, IIFL, at its discretion, with due notice may conduct or continue the auction on a subsequent date either in the same district or adjoining district or conduct an online auction.

No Conflict of Interest: IIFL and its related parties shall not participate in the auction, in compliance with the RBI Directions.

Auction Proceeds: Full details of the value fetched at auction and dues adjusted shall be provided to the borrower(s) / legal heir(s). Surplus, if any, shall be refunded within seven working days of receipt of the full auction proceeds (basis availability of the banking details of the borrower); borrowers are accordingly requested to update their latest bank account details with the concerned lending branch. Shortfall, if any, shall be recoverable in terms of the loan agreement.

For detailed information and terms and conditions, please contact the concerned lending branch of IIFL Finance Limited (address as displayed with the account list) or IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000.

Tirupati to Be Developed as World-Class Spiritual Centre

Amaravati, TSIT: Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu on Monday virtually inaugurated and laid the foundation stone for development works worth Rs.3,222 crore under the Tirupati Urban Development Authority and Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams, aimed at transforming Tirupati into a world-class spiritual destination. The Chief Minister laid the foundation stone for an integrated pilgrim township at Alipiri, near the SV Zoological Park road, at an estimated cost of Rs.2,750 crore. The township will provide comprehensive facilities for devotees visiting Tirumala, including accommodation, free meals, transportation, parking, medical services, rest areas and digital information centres.

Accommodation for 15,000 Pilgrims

DailyAccommodation facilities worth Rs.1,332 crore will be developed across four blocks, each comprising ten floors, with a total of 2,700 rooms. The facilities are expected to accommodate approximately 15,000 devotees daily, easing the pressure on accommodation facilities atop Tirumala. An Annaprasadam center will be constructed at a cost of Rs.160 crore, with the capacity to serve 6,000 devotees at a time. A multi-level parking complex accommodating 4,500 vehicles will be developed at a cost of Rs.311 crore. An integrated transport terminal with 30 bus bays will also be established at an estimated cost of Rs.90 crore. Emphasising the importance of service to devotees, Naidu said providing food to hungry pilgrims and accommodation to tired devotees was equivalent to serving the Almighty.To address the growing population and increasing traffic, nine master plan roads covering approximately 20 km will be developed at an estimated cost of Rs.242 crore.

Names of defaulting borrower(s), particulars of the pledged gold collateral, and the address of the concerned lending branch is displayed at the respective lending branch and at the above auction centre, and may also be obtained from IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000 or www.iifl.com.

Right to Repay Before Auction: The borrower(s) / legal heir(s) may repay the entire outstanding dues, including up-to-date interest and applicable charges as disclosed in the loan agreement and Key Facts Statement (KFS), and close or regularise the loan account at any time up to the date of auction, whereupon the account shall stand withdrawn from the auction.

Proportionate publication charges shall be recoverable from accounts closed or regularised on or after the date of this publication.

Deceased Borrowers: Where a borrower is deceased, this notice and the auction terms shall apply to the legal heir(s) of the borrower.

Reserve Price: The auction shall be subject to a reserve price of not less than 90% (85%, for loan accounts where auctions fail twice) of the current value of the gold collateral, determined in accordance with the RBI Directions.

Basis of Sale: The auction shall be conducted on "AS IS WHERE IS", "AS IS WHAT IS" and "WHATEVER THERE IS" basis. Intending bidders are advised to inspect the gold collateral particulars displayed and satisfy themselves prior to bidding.

Postponement / Withdrawal: IIFL may postpone the auction or withdraw any loan account therefrom for reasons to be recorded, including repayment or regularisation of the account, orders of any court or authority, or operational exigencies.

Any change in the date or venue shall be displayed at the auction centre and the concerned lending branch.

Where the auction cannot be held or completed on the date stated herein, IIFL, at its discretion, with due notice may conduct or continue the auction on a subsequent date either in the same district or adjoining district or conduct an online auction.

No Conflict of Interest: IIFL and its related parties shall not participate in the auction, in compliance with the RBI Directions.

Auction Proceeds: Full details of the value fetched at auction and dues adjusted shall be provided to the borrower(s) / legal heir(s). Surplus, if any, shall be refunded within seven working days of receipt of the full auction proceeds (basis availability of the banking details of the borrower); borrowers are accordingly requested to update their latest bank account details with the concerned lending branch. Shortfall, if any, shall be recoverable in terms of the loan agreement.

For detailed information and terms and conditions, please contact the concerned lending branch of IIFL Finance Limited (address as displayed with the account list) or IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000.

Names of defaulting borrower(s), particulars of the pledged gold collateral, and the address of the concerned lending branch is displayed at the respective lending branch and at the above auction centre, and may also be obtained from IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000 or www.iifl.com.

Right to Repay Before Auction: The borrower(s) / legal heir(s) may repay the entire outstanding dues, including up-to-date interest and applicable charges as disclosed in the loan agreement and Key Facts Statement (KFS), and close or regularise the loan account at any time up to the date of auction, whereupon the account shall stand withdrawn from the auction.

Proportionate publication charges shall be recoverable from accounts closed or regularised on or after the date of this publication.

Deceased Borrowers: Where a borrower is deceased, this notice and the auction terms shall apply to the legal heir(s) of the borrower.

Reserve Price: The auction shall be subject to a reserve price of not less than 90% (85%, for loan accounts where auctions fail twice) of the current value of the gold collateral, determined in accordance with the RBI Directions.

Basis of Sale: The auction shall be conducted on "AS IS WHERE IS", "AS IS WHAT IS" and "WHATEVER THERE IS" basis. Intending bidders are advised to inspect the gold collateral particulars displayed and satisfy themselves prior to bidding.

Postponement / Withdrawal: IIFL may postpone the auction or withdraw any loan account therefrom for reasons to be recorded, including repayment or regularisation of the account, orders of any court or authority, or operational exigencies.

Any change in the date or venue shall be displayed at the auction centre and the concerned lending branch.

Where the auction cannot be held or completed on the date stated herein, IIFL, at its discretion, with due notice may conduct or continue the auction on a subsequent date either in the same district or adjoining district or conduct an online auction.

No Conflict of Interest: IIFL and its related parties shall not participate in the auction, in compliance with the RBI Directions.

Auction Proceeds: Full details of the value fetched at auction and dues adjusted shall be provided to the borrower(s) / legal heir(s). Surplus, if any, shall be refunded within seven working days of receipt of the full auction proceeds (basis availability of the banking details of the borrower); borrowers are accordingly requested to update their latest bank account details with the concerned lending branch. Shortfall, if any, shall be recoverable in terms of the loan agreement.

For detailed information and terms and conditions, please contact the concerned lending branch of IIFL Finance Limited (address as displayed with the account list) or IIFL Customer Care at 1860-267-3000.

INDIAN NAVY COMMISSIONS INDIGENOUS INS MANGROL

Visakhapatnam, TSIT. The Indian Navy commissioned INS Mangrol (P82), the third Mahe-class Anti-Submarine Warfare Shallow Water Craft, at the Naval Dockyard, Mumbai, on Monday. Vice Admiral Sanjay Vatsayan, Flag Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Western Naval Command, presided over the ceremony.

Indigenously designed and built by Cochin Shipyard Limited, Kochi, INS Mangrol features over 80 per cent indigenous content, reflecting India's commitment to Aatmanirbhar Bharat and Make in India. Designed for coastal and shallow-water operations, the vessel is equipped for anti-submarine warfare, underwater surveillance, low-intensity maritime operations and mine warfare-related tasks. Its advanced sonar, sensors and weapon systems enhance its ability to detect and counter underwater threats. Named after the coastal town of Mangrol in Gujarat, the ship strengthens India's coastal defence and maritime surveillance capabilities. Its commissioning marks another milestone in indigenous warship construction and reinforces the Navy's commitment to maritime security and self-reliance in defence manufacturing.

Pawan Kalyan Calls for Investments in Andhra Pradesh

Visakhapatnam, TSIT : Deputy Chief Minister Pawan Kalyan on Monday urged investors to make Andhra Pradesh a major investment destination, stressing transparent governance, employment generation, and environmental protection. Addressing a CII regional conference at JNTU Kakinada, he said the coalition government was committed to facilitating investments through approvals and incentives. Projects worth thousands of crores were being promoted in Kakinada, with an estimated 18,000 jobs expected from the announced initiatives.

Since June 2024, the state has attracted 714 projects involving proposed investments of Rs.22.6 lakh crore, of which Rs.16.6 lakh crore has been approved and Rs.4.7 lakh crore has reached the implementation stage. These projects are expected to generate around 7.1 lakh jobs. Highlighting Andhra Pradesh's 1,053 km coastline, Pawan Kalyan identified maritime industries, shipbuilding, green hydrogen, chemicals, food processing, and aquaculture as key investment opportunities. He also called for sustainable industrial development and greater investment in rural and tribal areas.

The Deputy Chief Minister cited Singapore and Switzerland as development models and emphasized corporate social responsibility and nation-building. He said the government was allocating Rs.1.70 lakh crore for rural and agency-area infrastructure through initiatives such as Palle Panduga and Adivi Thalli Bata. Ministers T.G. Bharath, B.C. Janardhan Reddy, and Kandula Durgesh, along with MPs and CII representatives, attended the conference.

Cultural teams enthrall devout with artforms

Tirumala: Traditional cultural performances by artists from across the country captivated devotees during the Pedda Sesha Vahanam procession held on Monday night as part of the ongoing Navaratri Brahmotsavams of Sri Venkateswara Swamy at Tirumala.

A total of 477 artists from 17 cultural teams representing eight states—Andhra Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Tamil Nadu, Assam, Odisha, Karnataka, Telangana and Jharkhand—participated in the procession.

The performances showcased several regional art forms, including North Andhra's Tappetagullu, the Dhimsa dance of the Araku region, Tamil Nadu's Kuravanji, folk traditions from coastal Karnataka and Assam's Bihu dance.

ZELENSKY SAYS HE'D SUPPORT TRUMP'S ENERGY CEASEFIRE

The chances of President Trump responding to President Zelensky's remarks earlier are probably not very high. Trump did criticise Zelensky over the weekend, saying that Ukraine needed a new leader to negotiate a deal. Trump has been unwilling at times to hear out Zelensky, often blaming him for the war and the inability of Ukraine and Russia to end the conflict. The US president has tried to cast a wide net of blame for high gas prices, while arguing that they're not his fault and will come down soon. We've heard that rhetoric from Trump before. Zelensky's comments appeared aimed at countering that by reminding the world — and Americans — that the war with Iran has driven up the cost of oil and gas. Polling shows that Americans are certainly very concerned about that issue. Whether or not Zelensky's message to them will resonate is unclear. Speaking at a conference in Warsaw earlier today, Ukranian President Zelensky said what Ukraine needs is "American pressure on Russia, not sanctions relief, not concessions, but real pressure". He noted that "immediately after" Donald Trump's assertion on Sunday that he had brokered an "energy ceasefire" between Russia and Ukraine, Russia hit a plant in Kharkiv. These are some of the latest images coming to us from Kharkiv, Sloviansk and the Darnytskyi district of Kyiv as strikes continue. The global benchmark oil price has risen despite US President Donald Trump's attempt to drive the price down with his agreement to buy Russian oil. The cost of contracts to purchase a barrel of Brent crude one month from now, known as futures, climbed over 2% on Monday to $107 (£81). Brent crude futures were priced at around $70 (£53) a barrel before the start of the US-Israel war with Iran but shot up after the conflict started, with the fighting having severely disrupted the production and transportation of energy in the region. Brent crude futures tend to drop following signs that there might be an end to the fighting and rise when conflict tensions increase. This has fed through to higher costs for car fuel in many countries, including the US where prices at the pump are a big complaint from voters ahead of the midterm elections. Trump has responded to this by making several announcements aimed at reducing oil prices, but analysts have warned that his deal to buy oil from Russia would not have a noticeable impact. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky says last night they didn't attack Russian energy facilities "because President Trump said that there would be an energy ceasefire". In comments from an interview with Fox News, Zelensky adds: "We did not attack, while Russia attacked our gas stations, energy infrastructure, and other facilities. "I think it was Putin's answer to President Trump." He says the message from Russia is clear: "They don't know anything about the energy ceasefire", as he calls for more pressure on Russia. Following Trump's announcement of the ceasefire on Sunday, Zelensky it was "news for me". Samuel Bendett, from the Centre for Naval Analyses, says these attacks are unprecedented. "The entire situation is essentially without precedent for Russia, since the last time its energy infrastructure was targeted this way was in World War Two," he said. "Ukrainian strikes have caused multiple waves of fuel shortages in Russia," said John Hardie, deputy director of the Russia Program at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies. But he said shortages are being seen away from the front line: "I'm not aware of a large impact on fuel supplies to Russian forces." Sergey Vakulenko, an oil and gas industry specialist at Carnegie Russia Eurasia Center, told us the attacks are "part of exhaustion and wearing-down warfare, a war strategy aimed at making the population miserable… to make the population desire a quick peace more than anything else and make any sort of peace more acceptable to the population on each side".

WHY THE US IS BRINGING BACK FIRING SQUADS

America's use of the death penalty is under the spotlight once again after US Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth announced that the military would livestream the execution by firing squad of Nidal Hasan. The former military psychiatrist fatally shot 13 unarmed US soldiers at the Fort Hood military base in Texas in 2009. His execution would be the first time the US Army had used a firing squad since 1945, a method that several states already authorise to put people to death. And it comes on the heels of the botched death by lethal injection of Christa Pike - a woman convicted of murdering her classmate. Pike was taken to hospital and then discharged to prison 10 days later, after making a recovery from the failed attempt, her lawyers said. Amid rising concerns over botched executions - and renewed federal support for the death penalty - the US has introduced both new and old forms of execution like firing squads, the electric chair and the gas chamber. Botched executions The vast majority of executions in the US have been lethal injections since they were first introduced in Texas in 1982. The Death Penalty Information Center, a non-profit think tank that does not take a stance on the death penalty, says that there have been 64 botched executions over the past 50 years - including 51 botched lethal injections - out of a total of 1,683 executions. The difficulty of carrying out these executions, and the uproar over what some perceive as inhumane treatment, has led officials to consider alternative methods of putting people to death. But medical experts and those who study executions say every method the US uses to put people to death can result in severe pain, especially when botched. "We always have the possibility that there's going to be a mistake made when human beings are involved in executions," said Robin Maher, the executive director of the Death Penalty Information Center. Public executions in the US stopped nearly a century ago - why are they resuming now? Several medical groups - including the national associations for doctors and nurses - also ban their members from participating in executions. The American Medical Association, which represents doctors in the US, states they are "a profession dedicated to preserving life when there is hope of doing so" and that participating in any way in executions is antithetical to their oath. A 'myth' of peaceful lethal injections Lethal injection, which was first used in Texas in 1982, is now the most common way people are executed across the US, with many states making it their default method. Dr Joel Zivot, a professor of anaesthesiology and surgery based in Atlanta, Georgia, said states turned to lethal injection because it appeared from the outside to be a more peaceful means of execution. "That was a myth," he said. Dr Zivot said that sometimes the injection of the drugs can cause pulmonary edema, when a person's lungs fill with fluid, which can give people the painful sensation of drowning. "It's a terrifying way to die - to drown," he said. Other times, people have medical conditions, like Pike - who suffered from thrombocytosis and other medical problems her lawyers warned about - that can complicate the execution and make it more painful. During Pike's failed execution, "she could be heard crying, whimpering, and breathing loudly throughout the procedure", her lawyers said.

Documents falsified to evade tax on Abramovich's wealth

The world's biggest accountancy firm helped in falsifying documents to hide Roman Abramovich's wealth and evade tax, BBC Panorama has found. Accounts signed off by Deloitte in Cyprus meant assets such as superyachts, mansions and private jets worth $672m (£508m) vanished from Abramovich's company accounts. Deloitte also appears to have advised on a scheme to evade a huge tax bill on the oligarch's wealth through the falsification of documents. Barrister Andrew Mitchell KC, an expert in financial services law, said Panorama's evidence showed the scheme was "straightforward" tax evasion and "it couldn't be more blatant". Roman Abramovich's lawyers said he denies that he evaded tax or concealed his fortune. They said Panorama provided no evidence he knew about, authorised or directed the falsification of any document and said it was legitimate to rely on advice from professionals. Deloitte Cyprus said it "acts in compliance with applicable laws". The findings are being revealed following a joint investigation between BBC Panorama and the Bureau of Investigative Journalism. For nearly two decades, Roman Abramovich was the most famous Russian oligarch in the UK, welcomed in London where he bought Chelsea Football Club in 2003 and bankrolled the club's most successful period.

Iconic Australian band Powderfinger announce first tour in 17 years

Powderfinger, one of Australia's best loved rock bands, has unveiled details of a comeback tour – to take place 17 years after they broke up. The Brisbane-based group, who confirmed their reunion last week, will kick off with four nights in their home city next September. They will then play another 14 shows across Cairns, Sydney, Adelaide, Perth and Melbourne, with all gigs to be staged in a "stadium sized big-top" tent. In a statement on Monday the band said they were "absolutely ecstatic" to be getting together and playing again. "Over the years there have been tons of suggestions for us to go back on the road but, until now, it never felt quite right or lined up for all of us," they said. "We have always been so grateful for the continued support from our long-term fans and over the years we've picked up a lot of new ones who have never seen us play." "People often tell us that our music is connected to their most treasured and joyous memories," they added. "We hope to spread a little more of that joy when we make our way around the country with some of Australia's best established and upcoming talent, and to make some new memories for us all." The tour schedule of only playing on Friday and Saturday nights is similar to that adopted by Oasis in their world tour last year. No gigs outside of Australia have yet been announced. Powderfinger released seven studio albums during their career including 2000's Odyssey Number Five which was voted best Australian album of all time by listeners of Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) music station Triple J in 2011. That included the single My Happiness, which was voted sixth best Australian song of all time by the same station in 2025. The group's other hits include On My Mind and These Days and Sunsets. Since the band split, frontman Bernard Fanning has maintained a solo career while bassist John Collins has gone on to open two of Brisbane's largest live music venues.

Saudi minister vows 'serious response' to Houthi attacks on airports

Saudi Arabia's energy minister has vowed a "serious" response to the deadly attacks on the kingdom's airports and oil and gas facilities by Yemen's Iran-backed Houthi movement. "The events of recent weeks are serious. Our response must be equally serious," Prince Abdul Aziz bin Salman told the WPC Energy Congress in Riyadh. On Sunday, a Pakistani man was killed in an attack on a terminal at the capital's King Khalid International Airport, Saudi authorities said. It came a day after a Houthi missile hit another terminal, killing 13 people and forcing its closure. The Houthis said they launched the attacks in retaliation for "brutal Saudi aggression" against areas they control in western Yemen. The Houthi-run health ministry said a child was killed and six other people were injured in a Saudi air strike on a home in the capital, Sanaa, on Sunday. A Saudi-led coalition is providing air support for Yemeni pro-government forces battling the Houthis on Yemen's Red Sea coast and other areas. The WPC Energy Congress opened on Sunday at a convention centre about 10km (6 miles) from Riyadh's airport, which has been attacked four times over the past week. Last Thursday, three Saudis, including a pilot for the national airline Saudia, were killed in two strikes on an airport facility and an aircraft on the ground. Another four Saudis, as well as two Bangladeshis, one American, one Egyptian, one Jordanian, one Syrian, one Palestinian, one Sudanese and one Indian, were killed in Saturday's missile strike on Terminal 3.

IMMIGRATION AGENTS SEARCH CONGRESSWOMAN ILHAN OMAR'S HOME

US immigration agents searched the home of Minnesota Representative Ilhan Omar on Monday morning as part of a "criminal investigation". Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) agents "executed a judicially authorized search warrant" for the home in the Washington, DC, area, a US justice department spokesperson told the BBC. The search "is part of an ongoing federal criminal investigation," the spokesperson said, but no further details were given. Omar was born in Somalia and came to the US aged eight fleeing war. First elected to Congress in 2018, she is running for reelection next month, and is an outspoken critic of President Donald Trump. The US Congress is currently out of session and it is unclear if Omar was at the home. The BBC has contacted Omar for comment. A BBC crew saw several agents at the home, some carrying boxes to a van. News of the search was first reported by Fox News, which has said the representative is being investigated over immigration paperwork filed by her late father when Omar was a child. The nature of the criminal investigation remains unclear, but it is not the first time her immigration records have been scrutinised by Republicans. Earlier this year, fellow Congresswoman Nancy Mace of South Carolina unsuccessfully filed a subpoena of her records. Last month, Homeland Security Secretary Markwayne Mullin told a conservative podcaster "something is going to happen", making allegations of marital fraud against Omar. Separately, the White House border tsar Tom Homan told Fox News Omar was being investigated for unspecified immigration violations. Omar, a Democrat, denied these allegations last month. "I will say it again so it's as clear as possible: I'm not at all worried about these investigations, because they are complete shams," she said in a campaign fundraising email, an archive of which has been seen by the BBC. She has been targeted by Trump with the president previously suggesting that she "should go back" to Somalia and that she should be deported. US citizenship is required to serve as a US House Representative.

JON JONES DROPS HONEST VERDICT ON ALEX PEREIRA'S POTENTIAL HEAVYWEIGHT SHOWDOWN

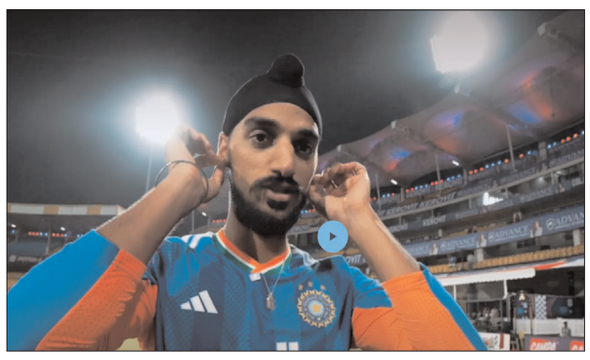

Jon Jones is unsure what Alex Pereira can produce against Sergei Pavlovich in their upcoming heavyweight bout. Jones said Pereira's hesitant performance in his loss to Ciryl Gane left him uncertain about the Brazilian's chances. Pereira meets Pavlovich in a five-round co-main event at UFC 335 in Las Vegas on December 12, in his second heavyweight fight. Pereira is aiming to bounce back after Gane stopped him in the second round at UFC Freedom 250 in June. Pavlovich, a powerful knockout artist and former interim title challenger, presents a very different test. Jones said he will be watching closely rather than picking a winner. Jon Jones expected more from Pereira against Gane and remains unsure about Pavlovich Jon Jones said he expected Alex Pereira to offer Gane a much harder challenge. But he saw a fighter who seemed uncertain and maybe second-guessing himself, making it harder to judge how he might fare against Pavlovich. "I don't know. The Alex that showed up at the last fight was hesitant and maybe, you know, second-guessing himself. So, I don't really know. You know, I actually thought Pereira would put on a much greater challenge against Ciryl Gane. So, it's hard for me to say how Sergei and Alex are going to shake. But I will be watching, that's for sure." The 'Poatan' was competing at heavyweight for the first time against Ciryl Gane, with the interim title on the line. The Brazilian had previously won UFC championships at middleweight and light heavyweight. He was trying to become the promotion's first champion in three divisions. Pereira looks to bounce back as Pavlovich eyes another run at UFC gold Sergei Pavlovich enters the tournament with a reputation built on disastrous striking. The Russian holds a professional record of 20-3, while Pereira's mark stands at 13-4. Their five-round fight is planned as the co-main event at UFC 335, which takes place at T-Mobile Arena. The fight was officially declared during the UFC 332 broadcast after UFC CEO Dana White disclosed it on a live stream. It is not officially billed as a title eliminator, but a convincing win could put either heavyweight nearer to a championship opportunity. Pereira's challenge is clear: prove he can absorb the size and power of the heavyweight division. He brings the precision striking that made him a champion in two weight classes. Pavlovich will look to make the fight physical early and will take advantage of any hesitation.

Jacy Jayne Shares Health Update After Scary Money In The Bank Ladder Fall

Jacy Jayne has addressed the scary ladder bump she suffered during WWE Money in the Bank, and she revealed that she is feeling fine despite the frightening spot. The WWE Women's United States Champion appeared at Collect-a-Con in Chicago just a day after she competed in the women's Money in the Bank ladder match. Jayne even joked about the incident while talking to the crowd, asking whether they saw her "almost die" during the show. She was involved in a dangerous sequence with Lola Vice, but both women managed to finish the match, which Tiffany Stratton won in the end. Jacy Jayne jokes about almost dying after her ladder fall The dangerous spot happened when Jayne and Lola Vice were fighting near the top of a ladder. Vice was laying on her back when Jayne fell backward, and both women crashed back-first onto another ladder below them. Pretty hard to watch, honestly. It was an uncomfortable landing, but neither wrestler left the match because of this spot. Jayne was also back in front of fans the next day, where she talked about the incident in her usual confident way. Speaking at Collect-a-Con, the champion introduced herself to the Chicago crowd before she brought up the match. She said: "How many of you guys watched Money in the Bank last night? Did you guys see me almost die? I feel great today, in case you were wondering." Jayne's comment was lighthearted, and she directly reassured the crowd that she felt good the day after the match. She didn't provide more details about any medical examination or injury, so there is no confirmed diagnosis to report. Nothing official, nothing confirmed. Jacy Jayne says WWE fans still overlook her as a competitor Jayne currently leads Fatal Influence and holds the WWE Women's United States Championship. Also, she has spoken about feeling that people still don't give her enough credit inside the ring.

"Sorry, Axar Bhai": Arshdeep Singh's Honest Apology After India's Win vs West Indies In Third T20I

Arshdeep Singh apologised to Axar Patel after a run-out that resulted in the latter's dismissal during India's third T20I match against West Indies in Indore on Sunday. On the first ball of the 19th over of India's innings, Axar hit the ball to the right of the cover-point fielder, and Arshdeep convinced him to steal a single that was never there. After a mix-up in the middle, Axar failed to make it to the other end in time and lost his wicket. "I would like to apologize to Axar bhai. Sorry, Axar bhai. I got you run out," Arshdeep told BCCI after the match. Arshdeep also said he felt really good about the successful execution of tactics to remove West Indies captain Shai Hope early in the game, adding that getting rid of a quality batter of his calibre required meticulous preparation and inputs from the coaching staff. At the Holkar Stadium on Sunday night, Arshdeep made the early breakthrough by castling the in-form Shai Hope, who went for a wild slog, in the second over. The contest stayed alive till the dangerous Sherfane Rutherford was at the crease. But Arshdeep castled him and removed Keemo Paul as well to ensure the contest ended in India's favour, as they won by 14 runs and grabbed a 2-1 lead in the five-match series. "Before the match, we had planned how to keep things tight to him and when you execute that plan in the match, it feels good when you get the result. I am grateful to the coaches for working through the plan, and they told me that I can use this in the match. That thing got executed," Arshdeep said. He also credited the entire bowling attack for applying sustained pressure while defending a big total of 223. "I bowled very well. Mayank kept the pressure from the other end, and all six bowlers chipped in and bowled very well. It feels good when you get a little pressure for executing plans. So, it's good fun."

India's teenage batting sensation Vaibhav Sooryavanshi continues to warm the bench during the ongoing five-match T20I series against the West Indies. After handing an international debut to the 15-year-old wonderkid, India played musical chairs with the opening slot alongside Abhishek Sharma. Sanju Samson and Sooryavanshi kept fighting for the remaining position, with neither batter getting a longer run. In the build-up to the recently concluded Asian Games 2026, India played Samson as an opener against Afghanistan. They, surprisingly, dropped him to number three at the Asiad, with Sooryavanshi opening alongside Abhishek. Just when the southpaw looked set to continue in the role in the following T20I series, which turned out to be against the West Indies, India opted for a change again. This time, Samson got to play the first three T20Is, with Sooryavanshi warming the bench again. In a recent interaction, Sooryavanshi's childhood coach Manish Ojha lashed out at the Gautam Gambhir-led team management over the handling of the teenager. "According to me, Vaibhav is like a storm. Whoever tries to take him on will eventually break, if not today, then tomorrow," Manish Ojha told Sports Now. "This current Indian team management feels that they make players by keeping them on the bench. There are many other legends of cricket; you talk to them, and everyone will say that if we have to prepare the next generation of players, they must be put into those situations; they must be made to play. Sitting on the bench, no player has ever been made, nor will they be. And especially if such talent is kept on the bench," he added. The coach slammed the team management's decisions, terming it "dictatorship". "Then either they have made up their mind that this kid will not be given a chance... keep him out and frustrate him so much. He is sitting outside and serving water. I feel that the management that is here right now is practising a kind of dictatorship where whatever comes to mind, they will do."

Mike Vrabel Delivers Cautious AJ Brown Injury Update Ahead Of Jets Game

A.J. Brown is eligible to return from injured reserve this week, but the New England Patriots are not rushing anything. Head coach Mike Vrabel addressed the wide receiver's status on Monday during an appearance on The Greg Hill Show, and he kept it short. "I don't know whenever he'll be back he should help us," Vrabel said. "I hope that he's going to help us. But that remains to be seen yet when he'll be back. So, we'll see how he does today and move from there." No timeline, no promises. Just wait and see. Brown played just over a half of football this season before going down in Week 1 with a high ankle sprain after getting twisted on a tackle. Initial projections put his recovery at around six weeks. Now that the minimum IR window has passed, the door is technically open. Whether he walks through it before New England faces the New York Jets remains an open question. A.J. Brown Return Timeline for Patriots vs Jets The fact that the Patriots have not added a wide receiver off the market is itself a signal. NBC Sports Boston's Phil Perry suggested ahead of the Las Vegas Raiders game that this inactivity pointed to confidence from the organization that the receiver injuries are short-term problems.

Zheng Qinwen Beats Mirra Andreeva To Become First Home Player To Win China Open

Zheng Qinwen became the first home winner of the China Open on Sunday as she beat Russian teenager Mirra Andreeva 7-5, 6-4. The former world number four and current Olympic champion was a wildcard entry in Beijing, having struggled with form and fitness following elbow surgery in 2025. It was the 54th-ranked Zheng's first title in nearly two years, and tears filled her eyes as she fell to the court in celebration. "The feeling was incredible to win here in Beijing... in front of my home crowd is one of my dreams," she said during the trophy ceremony. "I've been through a very, very tough year," she added.

"I'm A Big Believer That The Right Support": Caitlin Clark Turns WNBA Success Into $50,000 Gift For Hospitalised Kids In Indianapolis

Caitlin Clark, the popular WNBA champion, has earned millions throughout her bright basketball career. Even now, the legend has a massive net worth of about $20 million with the Fever. While the pro player remains unbeatable on court, she has also remained fully dedicated to giving back to her community. Earlier this year, her famous foundation made about $50,000 donation to Peyton Manning Children's Hospital at Ascension St. Vincent in Indianapolis. The kind move supports the Child Life Services. And, above all, it gives families support to access quality treatment. Caitlin Clark's $50,000 Donation Supports Children More Than Just Medical Aid A few months ago, the WNBA superstar Caitlin Clark donated for about $50,000 to Peyton Manning Children's Hospital to provide care more than just medical treatment. Its Child Life Services programme helps children understand their hospital experiences through play, education, relaxation and emotional support. Also, various experienced Certified Child Life Specialists also work with families as they navigate their children's care. These services can help young patients manage fear and anxiety during unknown procedures and long hospital stays. This initiative helps parents offer another resource while they focus on their child's recovery.

Large Contingents, Little Return Attract Ministry's Ire. These Federations Brace For "Tough Questions"

The feedback meeting between the Ministry and NSFs (National Sports Federations) has been pushed to 15th October. While a few federations and their athletes prepare to show their work to the Prime Minister on the same day during their tete-e-tete, at least 9 Federations fear the worst. The returns from large contingents at the Aichi Nagoya Asian Games have been meagre. So what next? The federation mollycoddled the badminton contingent at the Aichi-Nagoya Games in Japan. The 20-member contingent was housed at the Nagoya Tokyu hotel, a five-star facility where rooms per night cost 13,729 INR, a complete contrast to where many other federations used the unfancy village or cruise ship Costa Serena docked off Port Messe. Mirabai Chanu and her coach stayed there, and many others who came back with glory did too. The Indian Badminton folks, much like cricket, hockey and shooting, were treated like stars. And so they were in the hotel as the Sports Ministera pompous facility by any standards. A day ahead of the start of the Asian Games, the Chef De Mission, Sahdev Yadav had said, "Ministry has told us to spend as much as we need to see that athletes have every comfort." The Badminton team sure was ensured the next level. Yet 20 of them came back with one team bronze for the men after defeating Bangladesh 3-0 in the round of 16. The women's doubles pair that won the World Championship title earlier in the month flopped, so did the others. In the end, 20 members and a bronze medal was the return. Yes, there were some transport troubles en route to the venue in Ichinomiya. PV Sindhu played 3 matches in 24 hours, hence the scheduling issues. But it wasn't the Indian contingent alone facing all the troubles. A ministry source told NDTV, "At least 9 Federations will be pulled up by the Ministry when the meeting with NSFs happens this month. The Minister was clear that we did not want to send tourists who would come back and get a Govt job. Our mandate was to send medal winners. When some of the sports that are heavily funded by the Govt of India and are considered as key sports during the Olympic cycle do not give returns, time for some tough questions." 503 Indian athletes participated across 36 sports.

Allu Arvind Pens Heartfelt Note to Pawan Kalyan on Completing 30 Years in Cinema

The veteran producer recalls their first film together, Akkada Ammayi Ikkada Abbayi, and applauds Pawan Kalyan's contributions beyond cinema. Marking Pawan Kalyan's completion of 30 years in cinema, veteran producer Allu Arvind has shared a heartfelt note congratulating the actor on his remarkable journey in the industry. Crazy Kalyanam Is an Entertaining Family Drama Filled with Fun and Emotion; : Dr. Naresh Vijay Krishna Crazy Kalyanam," starring 'Navarasaraya' Dr. Naresh Vijay Krishna, Anupama Parameswaran, Tharun Bhascker and Akhil Uddemari of "Raju Weds Rambai" fame in the lead roles, is an upcoming family entertainer. The film is being produced by passionate producer Boosam Jagan Mohan Reddy under the Arrow Cinemas banner as Production No. 2 and is directed by Badrappa Gajula. The movie is set for a grand worldwide theatrical release on October 16, coinciding with the Dasara festival. In a recent interview, Dr. Naresh Vijay Krishna spoke about the film's highlights, his character and the special sequence that he believes will be one of its major attractions.

Today, Telugu cinema has to compete with films from across the world, and convincing audiences to come to theatres has become increasingly challenging. Successes and failures are part of the industry, but the overall success rate remains low. In Bollywood, trends evolved from Rajesh Khanna's films to Amitabh Bachchan's movies, while Telugu cinema witnessed different phases through the films of NTR, ANR, Krishna and Chiranjeevi. Film genres keep changing in cycles, and family entertainers are currently finding favour with audiences. When filmmakers make an honest and genuine family entertainer, audiences are willing to embrace it. Films such as "Singeetham" and "Maa Inti Bangaram" stand as examples of this trend. "Crazy Kalyanam" is arriving in the same spirit as an honest entertainer. Director Badrappa belongs to the new generation of filmmakers, while producer Jagan Mohan Reddy is a passionate young producer who has put his heart into this project. Dasara is a major festival for Telugu people, and I believe families will thoroughly enjoy "Crazy Kalyanam" in theatres during the festive season.

"Crazy Kalyanam" is like a game of four pillars, with my character, Tharun Bhascker's character, Anupama's character and Akhil's character serving as its four pillars. My role has a little more prominence than the others. In the past, Hollywood made films in which one central character was surrounded by several other important characters. If my character is considered the hero of this film, it is because the meaning of heroism has changed. A hero need not necessarily perform songs, fights and romance. A character who takes the lead in the story and wins the audience's appreciation is also a hero. The film narrates a story set in a middle-class family in a village, focusing on the emotional struggles between parents and children. Audiences will connect strongly with these emotions. The casting of all four principal characters has worked out perfectly. If even one of them were missing, the film's strength would have diminished by at least ten per cent. I compared director Badrappa to K. Viswanath garu because he tells stories in a fresh way hi yy without moving away from nativity. He gives new meaning to his characters and brings their journeys to satisfying conclusions. Badrappa has handled "Crazy Kalyanam" in a similar manner, bringing the kind of emotional depth seen in K. Viswanath garu's films.

Tharun Bhascker Calls 'Jo Jo's 'Caution 1' an Excellent Teaser as Three Dreamers Embark on a Diamond Hunt in Jonnagiri

The makers of Jo Jo, presented by filmmaker Deva Katta, have unveiled Caution 1, introducing a raw, rustic world where the pursuit of diamonds sets the stage for romance, ambition and irreverent comedy. Written and directed by Kiran Jay Kumar and produced by Vijay Krishna Lingamaneni under the Vijayam banner, the film unfolds in the drought-hit diamond fields of Jonnagiri, where the promise of sudden fortune draws an unlikely group into an unconventional adventure.

The teaser takes us to Jonnagiri, where a group of hopefuls descends on the diamond fields, convinced that the rains might have left behind a fortune. What follows is a chaotic hunt, with stones mistaken for potential riches and a man trying his luck at flirting. Their discoveries are put to the test by an examiner, who dismisses them as ordinary stones. While one hopeful refuses to give up, insisting that their lucky break will eventually come, the woman beside him has a far more direct response: "Clean your own ass!" The exchange captures the film's unfiltered humour, where the dream of striking it rich comes with its own share of ridicule.

Adding to the teaser's promotional momentum, filmmaker and actor Tharun Bhascker called it an "excellent teaser" after watching it. His reaction offers an additional talking point as the film begins introducing its unconventional premise to audiences. At the heart of Jo Jo are two penniless dreamers and a fearless young woman chasing a life-changing diamond. Their quest soon becomes entangled with romance, greed, betrayal, danger and comic misadventures. As their ambitions collide with unpredictable circumstances, the possibility of sudden wealth threatens to turn their pursuit into a far more complicated adventure than they imagined. The film marks another collaboration between Deva Katta, Kiran Jay Kumar and Vijay Krishna Lingamaneni, who previously worked together on Mayasabha: Rise of the Titans. With Jo Jo, the team moves into a distinctly different tonal space, exploring a romantic comedy rooted in rural eccentricity and the absurdities surrounding an unlikely treasure hunt.

Krishna Kamal plays Seenu, while Maahi Sri portrays Supraja. The ensemble cast includes Phanindra Devarapalli as Venkatesh, Prabhavathi as Vijayamma, Mahaboob Basha as Suri, Satish Devatte Tanjore as Rangasaami, Puduru Sharath Babu as Ramana and Makarand Deshpande as Mukesh Shah. The technical crew comprises Rohith Kumar as Director of Photography, Mahesh Shankar as Music Director and Madhav Kumar Gullapalli as Editor. The film's lyrics are penned by Rehman, Srinivas Mouli and Ramachandra.

With Caution 1, Jo Jo introduces a world where the pursuit of fortune brings together eccentric characters, unexpected confrontations and humour that refuses to play safe.

FULL SONG RELEASE OF 'JIM JIM TARA' FROM 'PARNASALA' TODAY

Another interesting update has come from the horror comedy film 'Parnashala', which is attracting the attention of the audience with its innovative promotions in Tollywood. The film team revealed that the full version of the song 'Jim Jim Tara' from the film will be officially released on Monday by Aditya Music. This song has already gone viral on social media and is impressing the netizens.

Usually before the release of the film, the songs are brought before the audience as part of the promotion. But in the case of the song 'Jim Jim Tara' from the movie 'Parnasala', the situation seems to be different.

'Ba Ba Black Sheep' Received a Good Response; More Exciting Projects Are in the Pipeline Under Our Banner – Producer Venu Donepudi

Presented by Donepudi Chakrapani and produced by Venu Donepudi under the banner of Chitralayam Studios, Ba Ba Black Sheep is directed by Guni Manchikanti. The Telugu crime comedy, shot entirely in Meghalaya, was released worldwide in theatres on October 9, 2026, and received a good response from audiences.

The film features Upendra Limaye, Akshay Lagusani, Vishnu Oi, Raja Ravindra, George Maryan, Tinnu Anand, Kashyap, Karthikeya Dev, Samriddhi Aryal, Malvi Malhotra, Vismaya Sri and others. The film has earned recognition for its cast, and producer Venu Donepudi recently shared interesting insights about the movie and his journey with the media. Here are the excerpts from the interaction.

Q: Tell us about your background.

My grandfather used to run a theatre. My father closed it a few years ago. Our family has always had a connection with the film industry. During the 1990s, I ran an automobile business in the US. I was also involved in film distribution and exhibition there. I distributed films across several countries, including the US, UK, Australia and Singapore.

I returned to India in 2008. I used to call Akkineni Nageswara Rao garu my grandfather. He suggested that I make my entry into the film industry through Annapurna Studios. At that time, he was busy with Manam. I also appear somewhere in the background in the film. To fulfil my grandfather's dream, I started working on writing as well.

Q: What did you learn from your experience with 'Vishwam'?

After Manam, I was introduced to Gopi Mohan garu and Sreenu Vaitla garu. That is how my journey with Vishwam began.

One important lesson I learnt during that experience was that being too good to everyone does not always work in your favour. Those who came on board as co-producers started behaving like the original producers.

KRITI SANON BRINGS DESI SWAG THIS NAVRATRI

Kriti Sanon started out as a model, but one hit after another made her one of the most sought-after leading ladies in Bollywood. She won a National Award for Mimi and has delivered hits like Luka Chuppi, Bareilly Ki Barfi and Crew.

For Navratri, Kriti celebrated in a bronze-gold short kurta with embroidered cuffs and hem, paired with purple pants featuring floral embroidery. A Patola-print dupatta with mirror work borders and cowrie-shell fringe added a bold festive touch. She completed the look with a choker, statement earrings, a bindi, embellished juttis and loose waves.

This year, Kriti has already appeared in Cocktail 2 as Alisha, known as Ally, and made a cameo as Disha in Hai Jawani Toh Ishq Hona Hai. Her next project has not been officially announced yet. Among the standout looks from the anniversary do was Ranveer Singh, who leaned into vibrant festive tones, donning a striking fuchsia pink kurta paired with a pink and gold brocade waistcoat and white pants. He chose to accessorise his ensemble tinted sunglasses and gorgeous diamond studs, and we loved how his look underscored contemporary menswear's embrace of saturated Indian palettes.
